The power of the Gospel created the culture and civilization, the way of life of Europe. Animated by faith, the art and architecture, music and literature of Christianized Europe created an incredible array of expressions of the Gospel and the Catholic faith. But now Europe is almost merely a museum recalling a past era of faith. Luke offers the key to interpret this parable: always pray unceasingly. The widow, victim of a grave injustice, is distinguished by her relentless constancy despite the judge’s indifference. Prayer in the Bible is also presented as a struggle with God; the prophet Hosea interprets Jacob wrestling with the angel as a prayerful invocation (Hos 12:6-4), in the sincerity of feelings. God always hears, if an unjust judge accedes to the insistence of the widow, the more God, the more righteous Judge, will attend to us.
